ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Deus in loco sancto suo.
Ps 67: 6-7. 36

1. Let God arise; let his foes be scattered.
   Let those who hate him flee from his presence.
   But the just shall rejoice at the presence of God; they shall exult with glad rejoicing. Ant.

2. O sing to God; make music to his name.
   Extol the one who rides on the clouds.
   The Lord is his name; exult at his presence. Ant.

3. Father of orphans, defender of widows:
   such is God in his holy place.
   God gives the desolate a home to live in; he leads the prisoners forth into prosperity. Ant.

4. Day after day, may the Lord be blessed.
   He bears our burdens; God is our savior.
   This God of ours is a God who saves.
   The Lord our God provides an escape from death. Ant.

5. You kingdoms of the earth, sing to God; praise the Lord who rides on the heavens, the ancient heavens.
   Behold, he thunders his voice, his mighty voice. Come, acknowledge the power of God. Ant.

6. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
   As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Ant.
OFFERTORY ANTIPHON.

Exaltabo te, Domine.
Psalm 29:2-3

- i -

will ex-tol you, O Lord. * for you have up-held me, and have not let my en-e-mies re-joice o-ver me.

O Lord, I have cried to you, and you have healed me.

VERSES

Domine, eduxisti. Ps 29:4

You have brought forth, O Lord, my soul from hell; * you have saved me from those who go down in- to the pit.

Audivit Dominus. Ps 29:11-12

The Lord has heard, and has had mer-cy on me; the Lord became my help-er. * You have turned for me my mourning in- to joy.
WEEK 17. Per annum

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON.  Exaltabo te, Domine. Psalm 29 : 2-3

1. Sing psalms to the Lord, you faithful ones; give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts a moment; / his favor all through life. At night come tears, / but dawn brings joy. Ant.

2. I said to myself in my good fortune: “I shall never be shaken.” O Lord, your favor had set me like a mountain strong. Then you hid your face, / and I was put to confusion. Ant.

3. To you, O Lord, I cried, to my God I appealed for mercy: “What profit is my lifeblood, / my going to the grave? Can dust give you thanks, or proclaim your faithfulness. Ant.

4. Hear, O Lord, and have mercy on me; be my helper, O Lord. You have changed my mourning into dancing, removed my sackcloth / and girded me with joy. Ant.

5. So my soul sings psalms to you, and will not be silent. O Lord my God, I will thank you forever. Ant.

6. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Ant.
WEEK 17. Per annum

WEEK 17. Per annum

COMMUNION ANTIPHON.  Benedict, anima mea, Dominum.
Psalm 102 : 2

Comm.
4. A*
LENN the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

Comm.
4. d
LENN the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

VERSES  Benedict, anima mea, Dominum. Psalm 102

1. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.
   Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits. Ant.

2. It is the Lord who forgives all your sins, who heals every one of your ills, who fills your life with good things, renewing your youth like an eagle’s. Ant.

3. The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger and rich in mercy.
   He does not treat us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our faults. Ant.

4. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so strong his mercy for those who fear him.
   As far as the east is from the west, so far from us does he remove our transgressions. Ant.

5. As a father has compassion on his children, the Lord’s compassion is on those who fear him.
   For he knows of what we are made; he remembers that we are dust. Ant.

6. But the mercy of the Lord is everlasting upon those who hold him in fear, for those who keep his covenant, and remember to fulfill his commands. Ant.

7. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
   As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Ant.
