WEEK 27. Per annum

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON
In voluntate tua, Domine.
Esther 4:17

W

4. In thy will, O Lord, all things are established * and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

VERSES

Beati immaculati in via. Psalm 118:1

Less-ed are those whose way is blameless, * who walk in the law of the Lord.

Suscipe me secundum eloquium tuum. Psalm 118:116

P-hold me by your prom-ise, and I shall live. * Let my hope not be in vain.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

In voluntate tua, Domine.
Esther 4:17

1. Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord!
Blessed are those who keep his decrees!
With all their hearts they seek him. Ant.

2. They never do anything evil,
but walk in his ways.
You have laid down your precepts to be careful-ly kept. Ant.

3. May my ways be firm
in keeping your statutes.
Then I shall not be put to shame
as I observe your commandments. Ant.

4. I will thank you with an upright heart,
as I learn your judgments.
I will keep your statutes;
do not ever forsake me. Ant.

5. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON

Vir erat in terra Hus.
Job 1 and 2. 7

Here was a man * in the land of Hus, whose name was Job, simple, and upright, and fearing God, whom Satan besought that he might tempt, and power was given him from the Lord over his possessions and his flesh; and he destroyed all his substance and his children; and wounded his flesh also with a grievous ulcer.

VERSES

Utinam appenderentur peccata mea. Job 6: 2-3

O that my sins, where-by I have deserved wrath, and the calamity the calamity, the calamity that I suffer, would appear heavier. There was a man.

Quae est enim, fortitudo mea? Job 6: 11

OR what is my strength, that I can hold out? Or, what is my end, that I should keep patience?

There was a man.

2. Here was a man in the land of Hus, whose name was Job, * simple, and up-right, and fear-ing God, whom Satan besought that he might tempt, and pow-er was giv-en him from the Lord o-ver his pos-ses-sions and his flesh; and he destroyed all his substance and his child-ren; and wounded his flesh al-so with a grievous ul-cer.

VERSES

Domine Deus, salutis meæ. Psalm 87

1. O Lord, the God of my salvation,
I cry before you day and night.
For my soul is filled with evils;
my life is on the brink of the grave. Ant.

2. You have laid me in the depths of the pit,
in regions that are dark and deep.
You have taken away my friends;
to them you have made me hateful. Ant.

3. But I, O Lord, cry out to you;
in the morning my prayer comes before you.
Why do you reject me, O Lord?
Why do you hide your face from me? Ant.

4. I am wretched, close to death from my youth.
I have borne your trials; I am numb.
Your fury has swept down upon me;
your terrors have utterly destroyed me. Ant.

5. They surrounded me all the day like a flood;
together they close in against me.
Friend and neighbor you have taken away:
my one companion is darkness. Ant.

and observe your words.
VERSES

Beati immaculati in via. Psalm 118

1. Blessed are they whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord! Lord, let your mercy come upon me, the salvation of your promise. Ant.

2. For me the proud have dug pitfalls; they defy your law. They have almost made an end of me on earth, yet I forsake not your precepts. Ant.

3. I detest those with a divided heart, but I love your law. My eyes grow weary as I watch for your salvation, and for your promise of justice. Ant.

4. Though my foes and oppressors are countless, I have not swerved from your decrees. Though princes oppress me without cause, my heart reveres your word. Ant.

5. I await your salvation, O Lord; I fulfill your commands. I have longed for your salvation, O Lord, and your law is my delight. Ant.

6. My soul shall live and praise you. Your judgments give me help; I have strayed like a sheep; I seek your servant, for I do not forget your commands. Ant.

7. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Ant.
