3. A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains: * from the womb before the dawn I begot you.

4. The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. †
“You are a priest for ever, *
a priest like Melchisedek of old.”

5. The Master standing at your right hand * will shatter kings on the day of his great wrath.

6. He shall drink from the stream by the wayside * and therefore he shall lift up his head.

7. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *

   lest the heathen say: “Where is their God?”

   the work of human hands.

   they have eyes but they cannot see;

The Divine Praises

O God, who under a wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion: † grant us, we beseech you, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood * that we may ever feel within us the fruit of your Redemption. Who live and reign for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

Hark! The loud celestial hymn Angel choirs above are raising; Cherubim and seraphim, In unceasing chorus praising, Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord:

BENEDICTION
OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT

O Salutaris Hostia

Therefore we, before him bending,
This great Sacrament revere;
Types and shadows have their ending,
For the newer Rite is here;
Faith, our outward sense, befriending,
Makes the inward vision clear.

Glory let us give and blessing,
To the Father and the Son;
Honor, might, and praise addressing,
While eternal ages run;
Ever too his love confessing,
Who from Both, with Both, is One.

Amen.

Oremus.

Thus have we, before him bending,
This great Sacrament revere;
Types and shadows have their ending;
For the newer Rite is here;
Faith, our outward sense, befriending;
Makes the inward vision clear.

Glory let us give and blessing,
To the Father and the Son;
Honor, might, and praise addressing,
While eternal ages run;
Ever too his love confessing,
Who from Both, with Both, is One.

Amen.
