One copy of this project is made available to interested parties for educational purposes only, on a not-for-profit, not for publication basis, for private distribution only. It is hoped that this project will result in a permanent resource once the expected English translation of the Missale Romanum (2003) is promulgated.
In order to satisfy a number of requests, I have prepared this little “Sampler” of settings of the ‘Proper’ of the Mass. Those asking for these settings tell me they value:

1. Devotion to the Word of God, in particular, to the Book of Psalms as the “Prayerbook” of the Church.

2. A desire to “Sing the Mass” rather than to “Sing at the Mass.” The Proper parts of the Mass given in the Roman Missal represent the authentic piety of the Liturgy, and best nourish the spiritual needs of the faithful.

3. Sacred texts that focus on devotion to God, divine realities, the transcendent, the mysteries of the Liturgical Year, sin and repentance, and the gifts of grace.

4. Music that draws its inspiration from the traditional chant and polyphony of the Church.

5. Organ accompaniments that adorn and heighten the word of God, without being flashy or calling an inordinate attention to themselves.

6. Options that are simple enough for beginning cantors and choirs, and require a minimum of rehearsal time.

7. In addition, options that are more challenging, and call to mind the sound and atmosphere, evoke the “ethos,” of the traditional chants of the Graduale Romanum, while using the officially approved English texts.

To this end, I am including here some “sketches” of possibilities. If you, the recipient, have time, please assist with this project. Provide feedback as to your needs, what works and doesn’t work, what is not included here that you would like to see, and any other points of interest and concern.

A new translation of the Missale Romanum is expected soon. With the advent of this translation, will it be time to make available an English Gradual in the styles of traditional Catholic church music included herein?

I am eager to hear from you. Email works best for me.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

1. In my distress I called upon the Lord, and he heard my voice

Psalm 17: 2-3. 3-4. 5-6. 7

verse 1

1. I love you, O Lord, my strength, O Lord, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

Psalm M t o n e -- Verses 2, 3 & 4

2. My God, my rock of refuge,
   my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold!
   Praised be the Lord, I exclaim,
   and I am safe from my enemies.  (R)

3. The breakers of death surged round about me,
   the destroying floods overwhelmed me;
   The chords of the nether world enmeshed me,
   the snares of death overtook me.  (R)

4. In my distress I called upon the Lord and cried out to my God;
   From his temple he heard my voice,
   and my cry to him reached his ears.  (R)
