PRAYER AFTER THE DIVINE OFFICE

Let every creature give unending praise, honor, power and glory throughout all eternity to the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity, the crucified humanity of our Lord Jesus Christ, the chaste Motherhood of Mary, the ever glorious and blessed Virgin, and to the entire assembly of saints, and may we be granted the forgiveness of our sins.

Blessed is the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary which bore the Son of the Eternal Father. And blessed are the breasts which nursed Christ our Lord.

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

PRAYER BEFORE THE DIVINE OFFICE

Open my lips, O Lord, to praise your holy Name. Cleanse my heart of any vain, evil, or distracting thoughts. Give light to my mind and fervor to my will; enable me to recite this Office worthily, attentively, and devoutly, so that my prayer will be heard in the presence of your divine Majesty. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord, I offer you this Hour with the divine intention you had while on earth offering praises to God.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT. AT SECOND VESPERS

Psalter: Week IV

A glimpse into the kingdom of God

Vespers is the evening prayer of the Church. This is the hour of thanksgiving for the graces bestowed during the day of salvation that has just passed. In Sunday Vespers we review gratefully the history of God’s kingdom in the Church and in individual souls. We see Christ our victorious King in his power (Ps 109); we hear of the fundamental laws of the kingdom: love (fear) of God, love of neighbor (Ps 111). There are two principal objects to our Vesper prayers: thanksgiving, and new courage to continue our pilgrimage.

ANTIPHON I

VIII

Cantor: God has appointed Christ * to be the judge of the living and the dead.

Psalm 109

King and Priest

A famous Messianic Psalm. In colorful pictures, the royal psalmist paints the mission, conflict, and triumph of our Savior. We ought to pray this Psalm with sentiments of deepest devotion, homage, adoration; for Christ has applied these words of prophecy to himself.

Christ's reign will last until all his enemies are made subject to him (1 Corinthians 15:25)

Appointed King by God

Cantor: The Lord's revelation to my Master : / “ Sit on my right : * your foes I will put beneath your feet. ”

All: The Lord will wield from Sion your scepter of power : * rule in the midst of all your foes.

Cantor: A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains ; * from the womb before the dawn I begot you.

Appointed Priest by God

Cantor: The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. / “ You are a priest for ever, * a priest like Melchizedek of old. ”

Conqueror and Judge in God

Cantor: The Master standing at your right hand * will shatter kings in the day of his great wrath.

All: He shall drink from the stream by the wayside * and therefore he shall lift up his head.

Cantor: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit : all, as it was in the beginning, is now, * and will be for ever. Amen.

Cantor: God has appointed Christ * to be the judge of the living and the dead.
ANTIPHON 2

Cantor: Happy the man who shows mercy for the Lord's sake; * he will stand firm for ever.

Psalm 111
The song of the saintly

This is the complement of the previous Psalm: the good God (Psalm 110) – the virtuous man (Psalm 111). The sequence of thought in the latter is rather free. The Church holds a mirror before my soul: are you such a virtuous man? I will think of the man who has shown the highest sanctity, our blessed Lord, and of his Saints; every day the Church is leading me into the gallery of his Saints.

Live a children born of the light. Light produces every kind of goodness and justice and truth (Ephesians 5:8-9)

Love of God's commandments
Cantor: Happy the man who fears the Lord, * who takes delight in all his commands.

Blessings of holy fear
All: His sons will be powerful on earth; * the children of the upright are blest.
Cantor: Riches and wealth are in his house; * his justice stands firm for ever.
All: He is a light in the darkness for the upright; * he is generous, merciful and just.
Cantor: The good man takes pity and lends, * he conducts his affairs with honor.
All: The just man will never waver; * he will be remembered for ever.
Cantor: He has no fear of evil news; * with a firm heart he trusts in the Lord.
All: With a steadfast heart he will not fear; * he will see the downfall of his foes.
Cantor: Open-handed, he gives to the poor; / his justice stands firm for ever. * His head will be raised in glory.

his children for ever.

All: 10. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit:

Cantor: 11. as it was in the beginning, is now * and will be for every thing. Amen. The antiphon is repeated by the Cantor.

Y son, you have been with me all the time and ev'-thing I have is yours. But we had to feast and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost to us and now has been found.
Frustration of the wicked

All: The wicked man sees and is angry, / grinds his teeth and fades away; * the desire of the wicked leads to doom.

Doxology

Cantor: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit:

All: as it was in the beginning, is now, * and will be for ever. Amen.

Cantor: Happy the man who shows mercy for the Lord’s sake; * he will stand firm for ever.

ANTIPHON 3

Cantor: Those things, which God foretold through his prophets / concerning the sufferings that Christ would endure, * have been fulfilled.

CANTICLE

1 Peter 2:21-24

Cantor: Christ suffered for you, and left you an example * to have you follow in his footsteps.

All: He did no wrong; * no deceit was found in his mouth.

Cantor: When he was insulted * he returned no insult.

All: When he was made to suffer, * he did not counter with threats.

Cantor: Instead he delivered himself up * to the one who judges justly.

All: In his own body * he brought our sins to the Cross,

Cantor: so that all of us, dead to sin, / could live in accord with God’s will. * By his wounds you were healed.
RESPONSORY

_Cantor:_ Those things, which God foretold through his prophets / concerning the sufferings that Christ would endure, * have been fulfilled.

READING

While all the runners in the stadium take part in the race, the award goes to one man. In that case, run so as to win! Athletes deny themselves all sorts of things. They do this to win a crown of leaves that withers, but we a crown that is imperishable.

Lent — a journey with Jesus through the “wilderness”

On our way towards Easter we have reached the Fourth Sunday of Lent. It is a journey with Jesus through the “wilderness”, that is, a time in which to listen more attentively to God’s voice and also to unmask the temptations that speak within us. The Cross is silhouetted against the horizon of this wilderness. Jesus knows that it is the culmination of his mission: in fact the Cross of Christ is the apex of love which gives us salvation. Christ himself says so in today’s Gospel: just “as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life” (Jn 3:14-15).

The reference is to the episode in which, during the Exodus from Egypt, the Jews were attacked by poisonous serpents and many of them died. God then commanded Moses to make a bronze serpent and to set it on a pole; anyone bitten by serpents was cured by looking at the bronze serpent (Num 21:4-9). Jesus was to be raised likewise on the Cross, so that anyone in danger of death because of sin, may be saved by turning with faith to him who died for our sake: “for God sent the Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him” (Jn 3:17).

St Augustine comments: “So far, then, as it lies with the physician, he has come to heal the sick. He that will not observe the orders of the physician destroys himself. He has come a Saviour to the world ... You will not be saved by him; you shall be judged of yourself”. Therefore, if the merciful love of God — who went so far as to give his only Son to redeem our life — is infinite, we have a great responsibility: each one of us, in fact, must recognize that he is sick in order to be healed. Each one must confess his sin so that God’s forgiveness, already granted on the Cross, may have an effect in his heart and in his life.

St Augustine writes further: “God accuses your sins: and if you also accuse them, you are united to God ... When your own deeds will begin to displease you, from that time your good works begin, as you find fault with your evil works. The confession of evil works is the beginning of good works”.

Sometimes men and women prefer the darkness to the light because they are attached to their sins. Nevertheless it is only by opening oneself to the light and only by sincerely confessing one’s sins to God that one finds true peace and true joy. It is therefore important to receive the Sacrament of Penance regularly, especially during Lent, in order to receive the Lord’s forgiveness and to intensify our process of conversion.
