Ps 83

How glad are they who in thy house
Lift up their hearts to thee in praise!
How blest are they whose strength thou art,
And in whose heart are found thy ways!

Thy saints go on from strength to strength
Until their travelling days are past,
And then with everlasting joy
Appear before thy throne at last.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow:
Praise him, all creatures here below:
Praise him above, ye heav’nly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Lord of hosts, how dear to me
The holy place where thou dost dwell!
Thy sacred temple-courts I love
Beyond what this poor tongue can tell.

How fervently my heart desires
To see again thy sanctuary!
Yea, my whole being crieth out
For thee, O Lord of life, for thee.

Beside the altar in thy shrine
The happy birds have built their nest;
Vouchsafe that there my weary soul
May find in thee its longed-for rest.

O Lord of hosts, how dear to me
The holy place where thou dost dwell!
Thy sacred temple-courts I love
Beyond what this poor tongue can tell.

How fervently my heart desires
To see again thy sanctuary!
Yea, my whole being crieth out
For thee, O Lord of life, for thee.

May find in thee its longed-for rest.

A NOTE ON THE
PERFORMANCE OF THE INTROIT

The settings given here are arranged for Prince of Peace Church, where they are performed thus:

ENTRANCE PROCESSION

1. The bell rings. All stand.
2. Celebrant and ministers begin the procession.
3. The choir sings the Introit Antiphon, Psalm Verse, Gloria Patri, and repeats the Introit Antiphon recto tono.

INCENSATION OF THE ALTAR AND CRUCIFIX

4. The choir is concluding the Introit as the celebrant and ministers reach the altar. They reverence. The celebrant begins to fill the thurible with incense.
5. The organ intones the chorale melody for the metrical hymn, playing the whole melody through once.
6. Choir and congregation sing the metrical Psalm as the celebrant is incensing the altar and crucifix.
   a. The whole Psalm may be sung in unison by all.
   b. The choir may alternate with the congregation, singing the even number verses in unison, or in four part harmony, a capella. This is indicated in the program.
   c. The organist may provide organ interludes. Festive instruments may be used on greater feasts. Varied hymn accompaniments are encouraged from verse to verse.

AT THE CHAIR

7. The celebrant concludes the incensation, and takes his place at the chair. The metrical Psalm concludes.
   a. The singing of the metrical Psalm is timed so as to conclude with the arrival of the celebrant at the chair.
   b. Some verses of the metrical Psalm may be omitted if they are not needed. The final verse, the Doxology, is always included and never omitted.
   c. The Introit covers the action of the entrance of celebrant and ministers and the incensation of the altar. The singing should not be unduly prolonged at this point, although it may continue a bit if necessary.

PSALM VERSES

8. Psalm verses are provided for other communities if they choose not to use the metrical Psalm version. As indicated, the Introit Antiphon is repeated after the verses.

ADAPTATION

9. Prince of Peace is a large church in the romanesque style that allows for an extended entrance rite. Smaller churches and communities will adapt this plan to suit their particular needs.
