Pentecost Sunday
Bless the Lord, O my soul!
O Lord, my God, / you are great in deed!
How manifold are your works, O Lord!
the earth is full of your creatures. (R)

If you take away their breath, they perish
and return to the dust.
When you send forth your Spirit, / they are cre-at-ed,
and you renew the face of the earth. (R)

May the glory of the Lord endure for ev-er;
may the Lord be glad in his works!
Pleasing to him be my theme;
I will be glad in the Lord. (R)

ORD, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

OME, thou Holy Spirit, come, And from thy celestial home Shed a ray of light divine! 2. Come, thou Father of the poor! Come, thou Source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine! 3. Thou, of comforters the best; Thou, the soul’s most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below; 4. In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe. 5. O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of thine, And our inmost being fill! 6. Where thou art not, man hath naught, Nothing good in deed or thought, Nothing free from taint of ill. 7. Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour thy dew; Wash the stains of guilt away; 8. Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray. 9. On the faithful, who adore And confess thee, evermore In thy sevenfold gift descend; 10. Give them virtue’s sure reward Give them thy salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end.

large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, “Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each one of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travellers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God.”

The Word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Pentecost Sunday
PENTECOST SUNDAY — 2nd Reading

Reading 2. Rom 8: 8-17

A
reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans.

B

Rathers and sisters: Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you. Consequently, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, “Abba, Father!” The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

PENTECOST SUNDAY -- Year C
Gospel. John 14:15-16. 23b-26
Tonus antiquior

HE Lord be with you. ¶ And with your spir-it. A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John. ¶ Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always. "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words; yet the word you hear is not mine but that of the Father who sent me. "I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, whom the Holy Spirit will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have told you. The Gospel of the Lord.

¶ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
