Beatus populus

1. Blessed the nation whose God is the Lord, the people he has chosen for his own inheritance.
From heaven the Lord looks down; he sees all mankind. (R)

2. But see, the eyes of the Lord are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness, to deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. (R)

3. Our soul waits for the Lord, who is our help and our shield, for in him our hearts rejoice; in his holy Name we trust. (R)

Verse

Ego sum via, veritas, et vita
(1) You turn man back to dust, saying, / "Return, O children of men."
For a thousand years in your sight
are as yesterday, / now that it is past, or as a watch of the night. (R)
(2) You make an end of them in their sleep;
the next morning they are like the changing grass,
which at dawn springs up anew,
but by evening wilt and fades. (R)
(3) Teach us to number our days aright,
that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Return, O Lord! How long?
Have pity on your servants. (R)
(4) Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, /
that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days.
And may the gracious care of the Lord our God be ours;
prosper the work of our hands for us!
Proser the work of our hands! (R)

Teach me wisdom and knowledge,
for in your commands I trust.
It is good for me that I have been afflicted,
that I may learn your statutes (R).

I know, O Lord, that your ordinances are just,
and in your faithfulness / you have afflicted me
According to your ordinances they still stand firm:
all things serve you. (R)

I am your servant; give me discernment that I may know your decrees.
The revelation of your words sheds light,
giving understanding to the simple. (R)

Memor fuit Dominus

(1) Sing to him, sing his praise, proclaim all his wondrous deeds. Glory in his holy Name; rejoice, O hearts that seek the Lord! (R)

(2) Look to the Lord in his strength; seek to serve him constantly. Recall the wondrous deeds that he has wrought, his portents, and the judgments he spoke. (R)

(3) You descendants of Abraham, his servants, sons of Jacob, his chosen ones! He, the Lord, is our God; throughout the earth his judgments prevail. (R)

Refr. IV a

Psalm 104

HE Lord re-mem-bers his cov- e- nant for ev- er.

(1) O Lord, our Lord, how glorious is your Name over all the earth! Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings you have fashioned praise because of your foes. (R)

(2) When I behold the heavens, the work of your hands, putting all things under his feet. (R)

(3) You have made him little less than the angels, crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him rule over the works of your hands, the moon and the stars which you set in place—what is man that you should be mindful of him, or the son of man that you should care for him? (R)

Dominus judex noster, legifer noster

HE Lord is our Judge, our Law-giver, our King;

he it is who will save us. Is 33:2

(1) Praise the Lord, for he is good; sing praise to our God, for he is gracious; it is fitting to praise him. The Lord rebuilds Jerusalem; the dispersed of Israel he gathers. (R)

(2) He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. He tells the number of the stars; he calls each by name. (R)

(3) Great is our Lord and mighty in power: to his wisdom there is no limit. The Lord sustains the lowly; the wicked he casts to the ground. (R)

IX. After Communion

Antiphon

Hail, true Body, truly born
Of the Virgin Mary mild,
Truly offered, racked and torn,
On the Cross for man defiled,
From whose love-pierced, sacred side
Flowed thy true Blood's saving tide:
Be a foretaste sweet to me
In my death's great agony,
O thou loving, gentle One,
Sweetest Jesus, Mary's Son.

X. Antiphons

in Honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us. And after this our exile, show unto us the blessed Fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.
Loving Mother of our Redeemer Lord,
Star of the sea and portal of the skies,
Unto thy fallen people help afford—
Fallen, but striving still anew to rise.

Thou who didst once, while wondering worlds adored,
Bear thy Creator, Virgin then as now,
O by thy holy joy at Gabriel’s word,
Pity the sinners who before thee bow.
