Responsorial Psalm — Year C

Refr.

O

Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth.

Psalm 8

When I behold the heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars which you set in place—
what is man that you should be mindful or the son of man / that you should care for him? R

You have made him little less than the angels,
crowned him with glory and honor.
You have given him rule over the works of your hands,
putting all things under his feet: R

All sheep and oxen,
yes, and the beasts of the field,
the birds of the air, the fishes of the sea,
and whatever swims the paths of the seas. R

W E bless the God of heav-en, † and be-fore all living we will praise him ; * because he has shown to us his

Psalm 65

Shout with joy to God, all the earth : /
sing ye a psalm to his Name : *
give glory to his praise.

Say unto God : *
How terrible are thy works, O Lord ! Ant.

Come and see the works of God :
who is terrible in his counsel over the sons of men.

Who by his power ruleth for ever, *
His eyes behold the nations. Ant.

O bless our God, ye Gentiles :
and make the voice of his praise to be heard.

Who hath set my soul to live :
and hath not suffered my feet to be moved. Ant.

Come and hear, all ye that fear God : *
and I will tell you what great things he hath done for my soul.

Blessed be God, who hath not turned away my prayer, *
nor his mercy from me. Ant.
