Psalm 44

The Introit is sung in Latin from the Graduale Romanum, 1974, p. 405. The verses of Psalm 44 are sung in English, Mode 1.

Verse 1

My heart has uttered a good word; to the king I speak my words. * My tongue is the pen of a scribe who writes swiftly.

Verse 2

Eark-en, O daughter and see, * and incline your ear, forget your people and the house of your father.

Verse 3

HE king shall greatly desire your beauty; * for he is the Lord your God, and him they shall worship.

Verse 4

HE rich among the people seek your favor; * all glorious is the king's daughter as she enters.

Verse 5

I will make your name remembered through all generations; * therefore shall nations praise you forever and ever.

Verse 6

LO-RY be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. * As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
