Communion Antiphon

Psalm 15

Ps 15. The Lord is my portion, my inheritance. In this psalm we give thanks for the gift of faith and of grace. Other men may have kingdoms, but we possess God, the highest good. It is he who has given me my blessed calling. He will not suffer his holy one to see corruption: this beautiful Messianic verse fortelling the Resurrection of Christ may well be applied to our own hope in the Resurrection of the body.

The Father raised Jesus from the dead and broke the bonds of death. (Acts 2:24).

Notas mihi fecisti vias vitae, adimplebis me latitiam cum vultu tuo, Domine. Ps 15:11

Verses. Sung by the Cantors

1. Preserve me, O God,
for in you I take refuge.
I say to the Lord, / “You are my Lord.
My happiness lies in you| a-lone.” R

2. I will bless the Lord who gives me | coun-sel, who even at night d-i-rects my heart.
I keep the Lord before my eyes | al-ways;
with him at my right hand; / I shall not | be moved. R

Eucharistic Hymn

1. O Godhead hid, devoutly I adore Thee,
Who truly art within the forms before me;
To Thee my heart I bow with bended knee,
As failing quite in contemplating Thee.

2. O Thou, memorial of our Lord’s own dying!
O living bread, to mortals life supplying!
Make Thou my soul henceforth on Thee to live;
Ever a taste of heavenly sweetness give.

3. Pie pellicane Jesu Domine,
Me immundum munda tuo Sanguine:
Cujus una stilla salvum facere
Totum mundum quit ab omni sceler.

AT MASS

Entrance Antiphon

Psalm 37

Ps 37. Prayer of the sinner in time of crisis. This psalm is the fervant pleading of a repentant sinner. The Christian, praying this psalm, will think of overcoming the greatest enemy of his soul, sin. The psalm can also be put into the mouth of the living Savior; through His suffering and Cross He has atoned for the sins of all the world.

All his friends were standing at a distance. (Luke 23:49).

Ne derelinquas me, Domine Deus meus, ne discedas a me. Ps 37:22

Verse. Sung by the Cantors

MAKE haste and come to my help, * O Lord, my strong defend-er. R For-sake me not.

Kyrie

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 130

Ps 130. Peace in God. In the chanting of this lovely psalm with its unmistakable mystic character, picture the Carmel of St. Theresa and her Sisters in which these consecrated souls serve their Lord humbly and joyfully. Be thankful for the blessings of religious life, and beg for more vocations.

Companions with him in suffering,
you will share his overflowing happiness (2 Corinthians 1:7)

Custodi animam meam in pace apud te, Domine.

1. O Lord, my heart is not proud,
nor are my eyes haughty,
I busy not myself with great things,
nor with things too sublime|

2. Nay rather, I have stilled and quieted my soul like a weaned child.
Like a weaned child on its mother's lap,
so is my soul with me.

3. O Israel, hope in the Lord,
both now and forever.

4. You, O Lord, have found my peace.

Ps 15. The Lord is my portion, my inheritance. In this psalm we give thanks for the gift of faith and of grace. Other men may have kingdoms, but we possess God, the highest good. It is he who has given me my blessed calling. He will not suffer his holy one to see corruption: this beautiful Messianic verse foretelling the Resurrection of Christ may well be applied to our own hope in the Resurrection of the body.

The Father raised Jesus from the dead and broke the bonds of death. (Acts 1:24).

Dominus pars hereditatis meæ est.

Veni ad me, omnes qui laboratis et onerati estis, et ego reficiam vos, dicit Dominus. Mt 11:28

Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,*
and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Or:

Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Acclamation

HE mys-ter- y of faith. R We proclaim your death, O Lord, and pro-fess your Res-uc-tion un-til you come a-gain.
